

Course Design Series

Sponsored by NCTC eLearning Committee and Faculty Development

Session 1: START HERE! February 4th 12:00-12:45

Do you wish you could spend less time answering questions and more time on teaching? This session will showcase the approach several instructors take to organize their first week materials and activities.

Session 2: Course Alignment March 5th 12:00-12:45

Creating a course that is carefully aligned makes for a better learning experience for the students AND the instructor. This session will cover the basics of course alignment. It will include practical advice and tools you can use to help align your course.

Session 3: Learning Objectives April 1st 12:00-12:45

The learning objectives form the foundation upon which the rest of the course is based yet most of us struggle with putting them together. This session will provide guidelines and practice with writing practice with writing learning objectives. It will be fun. REALLY!
